

Calendar of Selected Urban-Rural Linkages Events Inside and Outside of the UN for CSD 17

Contacts: Alexa Van de Walle at lexi@alexavandewalle.com or Tom Peyton at tom.peyton@gmail.com for more information
See official United Nations Commission on Sustainable Development website for wide range of additional activities open to registered participants for schedule of the official meeting, side events, partnership fair and learning center sessions

http://www.un.org/esa/dsd/csd/csd_csd17.shtml

DATE & TIME	LOCATION	EVENT	DESCRIPTION
Events – Inside UN UN CSD-17 ACCREDITA TION REQUIRED
Monday, May 4 th , Table-all day- 10 am-6pm	UN- information tables in neck area near Vienna Cafe	Urban Rural Linkages for Food Security and Vibrant Markets Partnership Fair	Information Table featuring the “School Food Revolution” and events, programs and organizations in New York City such as SchoolFood, Youth Farmers Market, Wholesale Farmers Market, Community Gardens and many more.
Monday, May 4 th , 3-6pm	UN- Conf. Room 6	Partnership Presentation: Public Food and the Challenge of Sustainable Development	Discussion/workshop with Professors Kevin Morgan and Roberta Sonnino of Cardiff School of City and Regional Planning UK, author of School Food Revolution: Public Food and the Challenge of Sustainable Development on the role of procurement of foods for schools and other institutions, the lessons learned and ways forward – all working in collaboration with local governments.

Tuesday, May 5 th , 6:15-7:45 pm	UN - Conf. Room 2	Urban Rural Linkages: Regions Feeding Cities Side Event	Panel discussion featuring local authorities and experts on the programs and policies that can extend and scale up best practices for farm to institution, supply chain, and market access improvements for food security.
Events – Outside UN, Open to the Public, No Accreditation Required
Sunday, May 3, 12:30pm-6pm	Baha'i International Center, 866 UN Plaza at 48 th and 1 st Ave, 1 st Fl.	CSD Orientation for all civil society organized by international NGO for all Major Groups.	The training session is at the Bahá'í International Centre from 12:30pm until 6pm. No badge will be required for access. The Bahá'í International Centre is located at 866 UN Plaza just a few minute's walk from the UN on the corner of 1st Avenue and 48 Street, on the same side of 1st Avenue as the UN.
Saturday, May 9, 9:30am-5pm	Urban Farms throughout Brooklyn (bus)	Brooklyn Farm tour OPEN TO ALL CSD	A bus tour led by World Hunger Year to the Brooklyn Rescue Mission, East New York Farms and Market, and Hattie Carthan Community Garden to showcase these and

	will pick up and drop off registrants at the UN)	DELEGATES AND REPRESENTATIVES Registration Required	other NYC community programs that connect urban and rural farmers to low income communities and emergency feeding programs. Lunch will be served. Go to sustainablefoodmonitor.org for registration info.
Saturday, May 9, 7am-3pm	Hunts Point, Grand Army Plaza (bus will pick up and drop off registrants at the UN))	Markets Tour OPEN TO ALL CSD UN DELEGATES AND REPRESENTATIVES Registration Required	A bus tour co-led by New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets, New York City's Office of School Food, Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, Economic Development Corporation, Council on the Environment to Hunt's Point Market, Grand Army Plaza Farmers Market and a nearby public school for a school lunch prepared by the NYC Office of School Food. The tour will focus on supply chain and market investment, policy, and logistics. Go to sustainablefoodmonitor.org for registration.
Wednesday, May 13 Youth Events are from 1-3 pm	Dag Hammarskjold Farmers Market 47 th and 2 nd Ave.	Youth Farmers Market Event OPEN TO THE PUBLIC PRESS is INVITED	A Farmers Market involving a high-level of youth participation, co-led by Council on the Environment, Family Cook Productions. Youth will showcase NYC youth programs about nutrition education, farmers market and cooking. NYC youth will videotape interviews of the members of the UN Youth Caucus